The Niwano Peace Prize

is hereby presented to

Venerable Shih Chao-hwei

As a Buddhist monk, you have committed yourself to defending the dignity of all life against discrimination and the inequalities of modern society. Your activities to relieve the sufferings of all beings and eliminate every kind of discrimination in order to realize a peaceful world emanate from universal compassion. This is the true meaning of Buddhism, and by your example you show us that its essence manifests in practice.

You understand Buddhism not only as a faith, but also as a practical philosophy that motivates people to affirmatively implement the Buddha's teaching in concrete ways. You have also devoted yourself to social movements while guiding the younger generation as an educator and researcher for many decades.

Niwano Peace Foundation sincerely respects, and finds profound inspiration in your various collaborations with many people who have brought great changes to society, and honors your steadfast faith in the face of hardships. Therefore, it is with great pride that we present to you the 38th Niwano Peace Prize.

第 38 回 庭野平和賞受賞者 昭慧法師 紹介映像 台本

公益財団法人 庭野平和財団は、第 38 回 庭野平和賞を、
台湾の僧侶、昭慧(チャオフェイ)法師に、贈呈させていただきます

チャオフェイ法師の贈呈理由は、自らの信じる教え、仏教の本質を探求し、その教義本来の願いや目的を忠実に具現化して行く、その純粋で強靭な意思と、類稀なる行動力にあります

このリストは、師がこれまでに携わった主な社会運動です

すべての生きとし生けるものを守り、社会に遍満する差別をなくし、平和な世界を築き上げる、それは仏教の本義です

師は、それらの目的を妨げるあらゆる障害に躊躇なく立ち向かい、仏教が単なる理論ではなく、実践行であることを証明し続けています

チャオフェイ法師は 1957 年にミャンマーで生まれ、8 歳の時、家族と共に台湾に移り住みました

21 歳の時、師は出家し、二年間の修行の後、正式な比丘尼(びくに)、いわゆる女性の僧になるための儀式である「具足戒(ぐそくかい)」を受け、僧侶となりました

そして 27 歳の時、僧侶であり、仏教学者でもあった印順法師と出会い、その教えを受けました

この偉大な師との出会いは、チャオフェイ法師の生涯を決定づけ、
仏教の教えに則った数々の社会運動をこれまで推進してきました

それでは、チャオフェイ法師が参画した代表的な社会運動をご紹介します

この映像では、 「いのちを守る」「ジェンダーの平等を守る」「仏教精神に沿った生き方を守り、広める」という、三つのテーマの元にご覧いただきます

まず「いのちを守る」

「すべての生きとし生けるものを尊ぶ」という仏教の教えに基づき、
チャオフェイ法師は、台湾において、「野生動物保護法」と「動物保護法」の立法に取り組み、それを成し遂げました

1993 年には「ＬＣＡ／自然保護協会」を創設、会長を務める中、広く国民に動物の虐待終止を訴えかけました

また、馬を使った賭博行為に反対するキャンペーンを長年展開し、競馬を「動物保護法」によって禁止する法案を成立させました

すべてのいのちが平安であるように
その仏教の願いは、いかなる命にも、平等に注がれるべきなのです

二つ目は「ジェンダーの平等を守る」

男性、女性という性別が、社会の構造や文化の影響によって、様々な差別を生んでいる、いわゆるジェンダー差別にも、師は目を向けました

そしてその目は、自らが帰依し、拠り所としている仏教の、法の解釈にも向けられます

2001 年、チャオフェイ法師は、「八敬法(はっきょうほう)」の廃止を求める訴えを公にしました

「八敬法」とは、仏教の戒律の一つで、比丘尼(びくに)は、男性の僧、比丘(びく)を敬い、従わなければならない、というものです

師は、この戒律は女性を著しく差別するものであり、そのような戒律がブッダ自身によって説かれたものとは考えられないと主張したのです

そして、台湾を訪れた高僧ダライ・ラマに、チベットの僧侶の、性別による序列の修正を訴えました

このことで、この仏教界のフェミニズム運動は、国際的な話題となり、世論からの強い支持を得るとともに、師の意見に反対の立場をとっていた保守的な仏教徒にも大きな影響を与えました

チャオフェイ法師は、このような男女差別は、戒律という規則だけでなく、それを行っている一人一人の心の中にある嫉妬心や優越感も要因となっている、と指摘しています

この問題も、ブッダの本来の教えと照らし合わせたのです

また師は、性的マイノリティー、ＬＧＢＴにも寄り添い、数々の支援活動を行なっています

2012 年、台湾で初めて仏教徒の同性結婚式を主宰し、その年のＮＹタイムズで「世界のイベント 100」の一つに選出されました

あるＬＧＢＴのイベントに招待された際、 チャオフェイ法師は、「同性愛は犯罪ではありません。異質なものへの差別こそが、犯罪なのです」と述べました

師は「同性結婚の合法化」も支援しています

2016 年に、台湾立法院での公聴会に招待された師は、仏教徒としての見解を求められ、その 8 分間のスピーチは、ＳＮＳを通じて十三万もの支持を得ました

師はこの他にも、公開討論、出版物、国内外の会議、社会運動などを通じ、あらゆる性差別的慣行に反対する行動を続けています

師は、世の中にある排他的な差別、支配と服従、という構造を絶えず問い直し、すべてのいのちが、平等に尊ばれる世界を目指しているのです

三つ目は、「仏教精神に沿った生き方を守り、広める」

2009 年、台湾にカジノを合法化する動きがあった際、チャオフェイ法師は、ギャンブル禁止を訴える連合の会長に選出されました

多くのＮＧＯや国際的な学者、諸宗教指導者と共に運動を展開し、賭博に対する民意の反映を果たすために、国民投票を実現させました

カジノ合法化の法案に対する国民投票はこれまでに三度あり、すべての法案が廃案となっています

この運動で師は、思想や宗教の違う多くの人々の団結を促し、
悪影響を及ぼしかねない社会政策から、人々の心や生活を守っています

チャオフェイ法師は、教育者、学術研究者としても、長年活動を続けています

1994 年の輔仁(ほじん)大学への就任から始まり、2021 年現在も、ご覧の組織で役職を務めています

1986 年に師が創立した佛教弘誓(ぶっきょうこうせい)學院、
ＢＨＣでは、法を学び、実践するコースを設け、未来の社会で仏教精神を広めることができる、才能ある男女を育成しています

また文筆活動も活発に行なっており、仏教倫理、人権、環境保護、宗教と政治など、多岐にわたるテーマの本や研究論文を執筆しています

そして、師のこれらの諸活動に対し、各分野から多くの賞が与えられています

チャオフェイ法師は、あるインタビューでこのように述べておられます

「私は、表面的な調和や平穏さが崩壊することに、あまり心配しないよう、助言しています。行動を起こすことで、より深く、大きな、静寂と平安が、心に訪れるからです」

公益財団法人 庭野平和財団は、チャオフェイ法師の、すべての生きとし生けるものの平安のために、あらゆる困難に臆することなく立ち向かう、その偉大なる勇気と実践、そして、師が心に宿し、その手に高く掲げた力強い信仰の灯火に、深い尊敬と讃嘆の意を表し、ここに謹んで、第 38 回 庭野平和賞を贈呈させていただきます

PRESS RELEASE

February 26, 2021

Venerable Shih Chao-hwei
to receive the Niwano Peace Prize

The 38th Niwano Peace Prize will be awarded to the Venerable Shih Chao-hwei of Taiwan in recognition of her work in peace building through her safeguarding of all forms of life, her promotion of gender ethics, gender equality and her approach to open-minded dialogue with different religious leaders and social groups. It is the view of the Niwano Peace Prize Committee that, grounded in her Buddhist faith, she provides fearless leadership in the promotion of a sustainable and viable peace, and as such we are honored to recognize her work.

The presentation ceremony will take place in Tokyo, Japan, on Wednesday, June 2nd. In addition to an award certificate, Venerable Shih Chao-hwei will receive a medal and twenty million yen.

To avoid undue emphasis on any particular religion or region, every year the Peace Foundation solicits nominations from people of recognized intellectual and religious stature around the world. In the nomination process, some 600 people and organizations, representing 125 countries and many religions, are asked to propose candidates. Nominations are rigorously screened by the Niwano Peace Prize Committee, which was set up in May of 2003 on the occasion of the 20th Anniversary of the Niwano Peace Prize. The Committee presently consists of seven religious leaders from various parts of the world, all of whom are involved in movements for peace and inter-religious cooperation.

Here are some comments by members of the Committee on the selection of Venerable Shih Chao-hwei for this year's award:

- Venerable Shih Chao-hwei is an internationally renowned Engaged Buddhist who is also involved in academics and has established educational institutes. She is a gender rights activists and animal rights advocate. Guided by the Buddhist teachings of saving all sentient beings, her activities have emphasized on safeguarding all forms of life. She is also vocal about various social and political issues of her country. I consider her an appropriate person for the Niwano Peace Prize. (Dr. Ranjana Mukhopadhyaya)

- During the last two decades, Venerable Shih Chao-hwei has led social movements to safeguard life in all forms. She promotes gender ethics, gender equality and open-minded dialogue with different religious leaders, social groups and academia. She also gives leadership and fearless engagement towards promoting peace. As a Buddhist, she stands up to promote sustainable peace. (Dr. Nokuzola Mndebde)

- I am impressed from Venerable Shih Chao-hwei's social movement, her inclusive approach of life saving, and her efforts against cultural and structural violence. Along with academic work, she not only established institutions but fearlessly work in the community for viable peace. She and her organization deserve to be recognized. (Rev. Dr. Susan Hayward)

- As has been stated by many, Venerable Shih Chao-hwei's efforts to transform gender injustice, address violence against animals, and engage widely and prophetically in so doing is remarkable. She reflects the fierce leadership of Taiwanese bhikkhuni as religious leaders working for the common good. (Dr. Muhammad Shafiq)

The Niwano Peace Prize

The Niwano Peace Foundation established the Niwano Peace Prize to honor and encourage individuals and organizations that have contributed significantly to inter-religious cooperation, thereby furthering the cause of world peace, and to make their achievements known as widely as possible. The Foundation hopes in this way both to enhance inter-religious understanding and cooperation and to encourage the emergence of still more persons devoted to working for world peace.

The Prize is named in honor of the founder and first president of the lay Buddhist organization Rissho Kosei-kai, Nikkyo Niwano. The 38th Niwano Peace Prize Awarded to the Venerable Shih Chao-hwei of Taiwan

This year, the 38th Niwano Peace prize will be awarded to the Venerable Shih Chao-hwei of Taiwan in recognition of her work in peace building through her safeguarding of all forms of life, her promotion of gender ethics, gender equality and her approach to open-minded dialogue with different religious leaders and social groups. It is the view of the Niwano Peace Prize Committee that, grounded in her Buddhist faith, she provides fearless leadership in the promotion of a sustainable and viable peace, and as such we are honoured to recognise her work.

Born in 1957 in Yangon, Myanmar, Venerable Shih Chao-hwei moved to Taiwan in 1965. She was ordained in 1978. Leading a full academic life, she teaches Religious Studies at Hsuan Chuang University, where she is currently a professor, and serves as the Dean of Graduate Studies at Hong Shih Buddhist College. In 2004 she founded Hsuan Chuang's Research Centre for Applied Ethics. She is also the founder of the Life Conservationist Association, which lobbies for animal rights legislation. She received the 48th Chinese Literature and Arts Medal for her outstanding contributions to cultural debates. She was also awarded the International Outstanding Women in Buddhism Medal in 2009, and The Person of the Year Prize for social movements in 2012. Together with His Holiness the Dalai Lama, she has been appointed as the spiritual mentor and patron of the International Network of Engaged Buddhists (INEB), founded by the renowned Thai Buddhist reformer, Sulak Sivaraksa. The Ven. Shih Chao-hwei is the author of over 31 books and over 77a research papers, including numerous manuscripts on nature conservation.

In line with the objectives of the Niwano Peace Prize to be rooted in faith, the Committee notes the Ven. Shih Chao-hwei's commitment to her Buddhist faith as a means to strengthen herself, her community, and her work. Viewing Buddhism as more of a profound philosophy than simply a religion, it is the foundation of her activism. Her viewpoint and participation in social movements is supported by moral studies and ethical discourse rooted in her studies of Buddhist ethics. In addition, she works with others from diverse social and even ideological backgrounds, working with pastors, priests, and monastics on the long, and challenging road of social change. Whilst the activism is inspired by her Buddhist faith, she sees that activism enables a practice that transcends beyond winning and losing, and indeed transcends the Self. She regards the fluid and changing circumstances of activism as a means of Buddhist practice to liberate the self from pain. The Committee notes her deep and profound commitment where her faith inspires activism, and activism becomes a practice by which her faith is developed.

An effective activist, Ven. Shih Chao-hwei has successfully campaigned on a wide range of issues including gender equality, animal rights, and nuclear power, amongst other issues.

Her work on animal rights includes facilitating the legislation of the 'Wildlife Conservation Act' and the 'Animal Protection Act' promoting the Buddhist practice to care for all sentient beings. She also ran a campaign to ban gambling on horses in Taiwan, which was successfully pushed through Parliament. This campaign is in line with her work on gambling, heading a coalition against gambling in Taiwan. She has campaigned against the building of casinos in economically disadvantaged Taiwanese regions, and her anti-gambling movement successfully led a referendum to stop casino construction in Penghu Island in 2009.

Her work on gender equality includes speaking out against cultural and structural violence. In 2001 she called for the abolishment of the controversial, "Eight Garudhammas" (where additional precepts are required of fully ordained Buddhist nuns above and beyond the monastic rules that applied to monks) declaring that these precepts were not codified by the Buddha himself, and that they strongly discriminate against women. This position raised international attention towards the Buddhist gender equality movement. In 2007, she convened an international conference entitled 'Religious Culture & Gender Ethics' to widespread recognition from international academics, religious circles and feminist activists.

Ven. Shih Chao-hwei has written many articles on environmental conservation and ecological protection, human rights and issues concerning religion and politics. She is bold in expressing her opinions from the Buddhist point of view, and publishes articles in several major newspapers in Taiwan.

The Committee note the Ven. Shih Chao-hwei's courage in the face of difficulties and her preparedness to give voice to controversial topics. We note that whilst she may feel fear, she also faces up to fear, calling it "the foremost enemy in one's life." She recognises that true peace of mind does not come from remaining silent or ignoring an issue, but rather by confronting it. We acknowledge her perspective that often there must be a breakdown of superficial harmony and serenity in order to reach deeper levels of truth and peace of mind.

It is for these reasons, and more, that the Niwano Peace Prize Committee, a group comprising distinguished scholars and religious leaders from around the world, in partnership with the Niwano Peace Foundation, are honoured to have selected the Venerable Shih Chao-hwei to receive the 38th Niwano Peace Prize.

台灣比丘尼釋昭慧法師，榮獲第 38 屆尼瓦諾和平獎

今年，第 38 屆尼瓦諾和平獎（Niwano Peace Prize）將頒給台灣的比丘尼——釋昭慧法師，以表彰她在和平建設方面的建樹，包括：維護各種形式的生命，倡導性別倫理與性別平等，以及與不同宗教的領袖與社會團體，以開放胸襟的對話途徑來促進和平。尼瓦諾和平獎委員會的觀點是，以她的佛教信仰為基礎，她在促進可持續和可實行的和平方面，提供了無所畏懼的領導，因此，我們很榮幸認識到她的工作。

釋昭慧比丘尼於 1957 年出生於緬甸仰光，於 1965 年移居台灣，1978 年剃度出家。她過著充實的學術生活，在玄奘大學（現為教授）教授宗教研究課程，並創立了佛教弘誓學院，作為佛教思想與實踐的教育中心。2004 年，她創立了玄奘大學應用倫理學研究中心。她還是關懷生命協會的創始人，推動動物權利的立法。她因在文化論述中的傑出貢獻，而獲得第 48 屆「中國文藝獎章」。她還獲得了 2009 年「國際佛教傑出女性獎章」，並獲得了 2012 年「社運風雲人物獎」。她與達賴喇嘛一同被任命為國際入世佛教組織（the International Network of Engaged Buddhists (INEB)）的精神導師，這個組織由泰國著名的佛教改革家蘇拉克・西瓦拉克薩（Sulak Sivaraksa）創立。釋昭慧法師是 31 部書與 77 篇研究論文的作者，其中包括許多有關自然保護的文稿。

「尼瓦諾和平獎」的宗旨植根於信仰，委員會注意到，釋昭慧法師以對佛教信仰的投入，作為增強自己、群體與工作的方法。她視佛教不僅是一種宗教，更是一種深刻的哲學，這是其行動實踐的基礎。她的社運觀點與行動實踐，來自道德哲學的研究與倫理學的論述，而這一切植根於她對佛教倫理學的研究。此外，她與來自不同社會背景乃至意識形態的其他人一起奮鬥，與神職、牧師和僧侶一起在漫長而富挑戰性的社會改革道路上合作。在她從佛教信仰中汲取靈感的同時，她發現，行動實踐可以是一種超越勝負乃至超越自我的修行。她在行動實踐中體認到諸行無常與情境變遷，這恰是一種可以解脫於苦的修行方法。委員會注意到她那深遠而強大的奉獻，亦即：她的信仰激發了行動實踐，而行動實踐也成為一種信仰成長的修行。

作為一個有效行動的積極分子，釋昭慧法師在包括性別平等、動物權利與核電在內的許多議題上，成功地展開了運動。

她在動物權利方面的工作，包括推動《野生動物保育法》的修法和《動物保護法》的立法，促使佛教徒以「護念眾生」作為修行。她還展開了一項禁止在台灣賭馬的運動，此舉已成功地獲得議會的通過。這項運動與她在（反）賭博方面

的工作相似，她領導了台灣反賭博合法化聯盟，反對在經濟上處於劣勢的（離島）地區建造賭場，這項反賭博合法化運動，成功地推動一項全民公投，於 2009 年遏止了澎湖島的賭場建設。

她在性別平等方面的工作，包括反對文化和結構性暴力。在 2001 年，她呼籲廢除具有爭議性的「八敬法」（除了適用於僧人的戒律之外，受具足戒的佛教尼師還被要求奉行這些規範），她宣告：這些強烈地歧視婦女的戒律，不是佛陀本人制訂的。此一立場，引起了國際社會對佛教性別平等運動的關注。 2007 年，她召開了一次國際會議，名為「宗教文化與性別倫理」，得到了國際學者、宗教界和女權主義者的廣泛認可。

釋昭慧法師寫了許多有關環境關懷、生態保育、人權以及宗教與政治議題的文章。她從佛法的角度大膽表達意見，並在台灣幾家主要報紙上發表文章。

正是由於如上（乃至更多）原因，使得尼瓦諾和平獎委員會（由來自世界各地的傑出學者和宗教領袖組成）與尼瓦諾基金會合作，榮幸地選擇了比丘尼釋昭慧法師，獲得第三十八屆尼瓦諾和平獎。

Dear members of the International Committee for the Niwano Peace Prize:

I am very honored to be selected for this year's Niwano Peace Prize. For decades, the Foundation has been a visionary leader, in Asia and across the world, for advancing peace. I am humbled to be among the other pioneering figures who have bravely and diligently committed themselves toward the well-being and harmony of our planet. And I vow to steward and carry forth this legacy with all my devotion and effort.

The world post-COVID19 is an altered one. Globally, we've shared a powerful common experience but there are also worrying trends that point to new fractures and deepening divisions. Therefore, we must contemplate how these ongoing transformations can be steered toward societal healing and peace-building. I propose that we look to lessons from the Dharma, which may be more urgent and critical than ever before.

One lesson draws from the path of the Bodhisattva, a manner of living centered around the mandate to care for all sentient beings. No single being is below or outside the scope of our concern. And we demonstrate this concern by actively working for the happiness and benefit of every living thing, as well as to lessen their suffering. This is what every life deserves, without question. Because there is no true peace if those around you are suffering.

What's doubly inspiring about the Bodhisattva path is that every moment of every day is a chance to practice. No matter what work or task one undertakes, one can always amplify the benefits of that work by making it meaningful for others beyond oneself, without any expectation of reward or recognition. This is also a practice of letting go self-interest and ego, which is at the base of so much conflict seen in human societies today.

A second lesson from the Dharma is the insight of dependent origination, which helps us understand that there is no self independent from others. Any achievement in our lives is due to a multitude of forces and elements, so we can only thank them all—those we've liked and disliked, those which have overtly helped us or hinder us.

Finally, the Dharma empowers each of us to question and to think critically. At times, to alleviate suffering and to promote active peace, we are required to say "No," when we see harm being done. This may even mean "No" to the government and to Buddhist institutions. We cannot avoid looking at the big systems that are responsible for the creation and potentially reduction of suffering for so many. But to stand firm in right action and right speech, against such huge institutional forces, also means that we need the power of many.

Therefore, since the 1990s, I have been part of movements against gambling, against the cruelty of animals, against the proliferation of nuclear energy, and against discriminatory interpretations of love and family, because I have seen how they have caused great harm.

Of course, speaking out does not come without risk but true peace comes only when we can see past the illusions of superficial harmony and serenity. When we see injustice and do not act, then we experience a kind of torment, too. Taking action allows a more profound serenity and peace to emerge in our heart and in our world.

The coronavirus pandemic has exposed long-held illusions and shattered old patterns. What we are presented with is an unprecedented opportunity for building better for all sentient beings. It is with this dedication toward an active and more lasting peace that I humbly accept the Niwano Peace Prize.

With deep gratitude,

Chao-hwei Shih

PRESS RELEASE

February 26, 2021

Venerable Shih Chao-hwei
to receive the Niwano Peace Prize

The 38th Niwano Peace Prize will be awarded to the Venerable Shih Chao-hwei of Taiwan in recognition of her work in peace building through her safeguarding of all forms of life, her promotion of gender ethics, gender equality and her approach to open-minded dialogue with different religious leaders and social groups. It is the view of the Niwano Peace Prize Committee that, grounded in her Buddhist faith, she provides fearless leadership in the promotion of a sustainable and viable peace, and as such we are honored to recognize her work.

The presentation ceremony will take place in Tokyo, Japan, on Wednesday, June 2nd. In addition to an award certificate, Venerable Shih Chao-hwei will receive a medal and twenty million yen.

To avoid undue emphasis on any particular religion or region, every year the Peace Foundation solicits nominations from people of recognized intellectual and religious stature around the world. In the nomination process, some 600 people and organizations, representing 125 countries and many religions, are asked to propose candidates. Nominations are rigorously screened by the Niwano Peace Prize Committee, which was set up in May of 2003 on the occasion of the 20th Anniversary of the Niwano Peace Prize. The Committee presently consists of seven religious leaders from various parts of the world, all of whom are involved in movements for peace and inter-religious cooperation.

Here are some comments by members of the Committee on the selection of Venerable Shih Chao-hwei for this year's award:

- Venerable Shih Chao-hwei is an internationally renowned Engaged Buddhist who is also involved in academics and has established educational institutes. She is a gender rights activists and animal rights advocate. Guided by the Buddhist teachings of saving all sentient beings, her activities have emphasized on safeguarding all forms of life. She is also vocal about various social and political issues of her country. I consider her an appropriate person for the Niwano Peace Prize. (Dr. Ranjana Mukhopadhyaya)

- During the last two decades, Venerable Shih Chao-hwei has led social movements to safeguard life in all forms. She promotes gender ethics, gender equality and open-minded dialogue with different religious leaders, social groups and academia. She also gives leadership and fearless engagement towards promoting peace. As a Buddhist, she stands up to promote sustainable peace. (Dr. Nokuzola Mndebde)

- I am impressed from Venerable Shih Chao-hwei's social movement, her inclusive approach of life saving, and her efforts against cultural and structural violence. Along with academic work, she not only established institutions but fearlessly work in the community for viable peace. She and her organization deserve to be recognized. (Rev. Dr. Susan Hayward)

- As has been stated by many, Venerable Shih Chao-hwei's efforts to transform gender injustice, address violence against animals, and engage widely and prophetically in so doing is remarkable. She reflects the fierce leadership of Taiwanese bhikkhuni as religious leaders working for the common good. (Dr. Muhammad Shafiq)

The Niwano Peace Prize

The Niwano Peace Foundation established the Niwano Peace Prize to honor and encourage individuals and organizations that have contributed significantly to inter-religious cooperation, thereby furthering the cause of world peace, and to make their achievements known as widely as possible. The Foundation hopes in this way both to enhance inter-religious understanding and cooperation and to encourage the emergence of still more persons devoted to working for world peace.

The Prize is named in honor of the founder and first president of the lay Buddhist organization Rissho Kosei-kai, Nikkyo Niwano. For Niwano, peace was not merely an absence of conflict among nations, but a dynamic harmony in the inner lives of people as well as in our communities, nations and the world. Seeing peace as the goal of Buddhism, Niwano devoted much of the latter half of his life to promoting world peace, especially through inter-religious discussion and cooperation.

Taiwan's Shih recognized for lifetime of service, dedication

This year, the 38th Niwano Peace Prize will be awarded to the Venerable Shih Chao-hwei of Taiwan in recognition of her work in peace building through her safeguarding of all forms of life, promotion of gender ethics and gender equality, and her approach to open-minded dialogue with different religious leaders and social groups.

As a leading social advocate in Taiwan, Shih has successfully campaigned on a wide range of issues, including gender equality, animal rights and nuclear power, among others. She currently teaches religious studies at Hsuan Chuang University as a professor and is the founder of Buddhist Hong Shi College.

"I am humbled to be among the other pioneering figures who have bravely and diligently committed themselves toward the well-being and harmony of our planet. And I vow to steward and carry forth this legacy with all my devotion and effort," Shih wrote in her acceptance letter.

To avoid undue emphasis on any particular religion or region, every year the Niwano Peace Foundation solicits nominations from people of recognized intellectual and religious stature around the world. In the nomination process, some 600 people and organizations, representing 125 countries and many religions, are asked to propose candidates. Nominations are rigorously screened by the Niwano Peace Prize Committee, which currently consists of seven religious leaders from various parts of the world, all of whom are involved in movements for peace and inter-religious cooperation.

"During the last two decades, Venerable Shih Chao-hwei has led social movements to safeguard life in all forms. She promotes gender ethics, gender equality and open-minded dialogue with different religious leaders, social groups and academia," wrote committee member Nokuzola Mndende. "She also gives leadership and fearless engagement towards promoting peace. As a Buddhist, she stands up to promote sustainable peace."

The presentation ceremony will take place in Tokyo on June 2. In addition to an award certificate, Shih will receive a medal and ¥20 million.

Life of dedication

Shih was born in Yangon, Myanmar, in 1957, and moved to Taiwan in 1965. She was ordained in 1978. In 2004, she founded Hsuan Chuang's Research Centre for Applied Ethics. She is also the founder of the Life Conservationist Association, which lobbies for animal rights legislation. She received the 48th Chinese Literature and Arts Medal for her outstanding contributions to cultural debates, as well as the International Outstanding Women in Buddhism Medal in 2009, and The Person of the Year Prize for social movements in 2012. Together with the Dalai Lama, she has been appointed as the spiritual mentor and patron of the International Network of Engaged Buddhists, founded by the renowned Thai Buddhist reformer, Sulak Sivaraksa. Shih is the author of over 31 books and more than 77 research papers, including numerous manuscripts on nature conservation.

Her work on animal rights includes facilitating the legislation of the Wildlife Conservation Act and the Animal Protection Act, promoting the Buddhist practice to care for all sentient beings. She also ran a campaign to ban gambling on horses in Taiwan, which was successfully passed by parliament. This campaign is in line with her work on gambling, heading a coalition against the practice in Taiwan. She has campaigned against the building of casinos in economically disadvantaged Taiwanese regions, and her anti-gambling movement successfully led a referendum to stop casino construction on Penghu Island in 2009.

Venerable Shih Chao-hwei

Her work on gender equality includes speaking out against cultural and structural violence. In 2001 she called for the abolition of the controversial "Eight Garudhammas" (where additional precepts are required of fully ordained Buddhist nuns above and beyond the monastic rules that applied to monks), declaring that these precepts were not codified by Buddha himself, and that they strongly discriminate against women. This position raised international attention toward the Buddhist gender equality movement. In 2007, she convened an international conference titled Religious Culture and Gender Ethics to widespread recognition from international academics, religious circles and feminist activists.

Shih has written many articles on environmental conservation and ecological protection, human rights and issues concerning religion and politics. She is bold in expressing her opinions from the Buddhist point of view, and publishes articles in several major newspapers in Taiwan.

Fighting despite risks

The committee noted Shih's courage in the face of difficulties and her preparedness to give voice to controversial topics. In its press release, the committee wrote that "while she may feel fear, she also faces up to fear, calling it 'the foremost enemy in one's life.' She recognizes that true peace of mind does not come from remaining silent or ignoring an issue, but rather by confronting it. We acknowledge her perspective that often there must be a breakdown of superficial harmony and serenity in order to reach deeper levels of truth and peace of mind."

"The world after COVID-19 is an altered one. Globally, we've shared a powerful common experience but there are also worrying trends that point to new fractures and deepening divisions. Therefore, we must contemplate how these ongoing transformations can be steered toward societal healing and peace building," Shih wrote in her acceptance letter. "Of course, speaking out does not come without risk but true peace comes only when we can see past the illusions of superficial harmony and serenity. When we see injustice and do not act, then we experience a kind of torment, too. Taking action allows a more profound serenity and peace to emerge in our heart and in our world. The coronavirus pandemic has exposed long-held illusions and shattered old patterns. What we are presented with is an unprecedented opportunity for building better for all sentient beings."

Annual award recognizes endeavors that aim to ease suffering through interreligious cooperation

The Niwano Peace Foundation established the Niwano Peace Prize to honor and encourage individuals and organizations that have contributed significantly to interreligious cooperation, thereby furthering the cause of world peace and to make their achievements as widely known as possible.

The foundation hopes in this way to enhance interreligious understanding and cooperation and encourage the emergence of still more people devoted to working for world peace.

The prize is named in honor of the founder and first president of the lay Buddhist organization Rissho Kosei-kai, Nikkyo Niwano. For Niwano, peace was not merely an absence of conflict among nations, but a dynamic harmony in the inner lives of people, as well as in our communities, nations and the world.

China tech CEOs slip out of view to avoid Beijing's glare

Party officials step up scrutiny as firms rise in power and influence

ByteDance founder Zhang Yiming joins a growing list of tech chiefs who have suddenly left — at least in public — well before their prime. AFP-JIJI

ByteDance founder Zhang Yiming, the brains behind TikTok, said he preferred "daydreaming" as he stepped down as head of his own firm last month. But his departure comes as several of China's once-lauded tech entrepreneurs step aside under increasing scrutiny from a government concerned about their growing power and influence.

In his self-effacing May 20 memo, Zhang confesses to limitations as head of ByteDance — the Beijing-based parent of video-sharing app TikTok — and warned of the risks of the "CEO becoming overly central" and cluttering the vision of what is coming next.

However, his hurried departure comes as rumors of a mega-listing swirl around his firm, the world's most valuable tech startup which soaks up advertisers from its hundreds of millions of users of Douyin — the Chinese version of TikTok.

He joins a growing list of billionaire tech chiefs who have suddenly left — at least in public — well before their prime. In March, the 40-year-old chairman of e-commerce giant Pinduoduo, Colin Huang, unexpectedly vacated his post to focus on philanthropy. More famously Jack Ma, 56, the billionaire founder of online behemoth Alibaba, has gone virtually silent since last year, when he chided China's regulators for smothering innovation.

It was a costly move.

Soon after his comments Alibaba affiliate Ant Group's world-record Hong Kong-and-Shanghai IPO was summarily yanked days before launch, Ma vanished from public and his company was fined an unprecedented $2.8 billion for "monopolistic" practices.

Having for years been hailed as the apex of the country's all-conquering entrepreneurial spirit, China's tech leaders have begun to feel the hand of the ruling Communist Party as it grows more concerned about their increasing power and audacity to step out of line.

"The crackdown is not driven as much by concerns about the growing charisma and popularity of individual CEOs," explained Xin Sun, senior lecturer on Chinese and East Asian business at King's College London.

But more so "by the Communist Party's fear of losing its grip on these resourceful, data-rich tech giants that have grown into powerful actors not only in the economy but also, at least potentially, in politics."

Ma's name — once proudly paraded across the world as a champion of Chinese tech brilliance — is now being airbrushed out.

Last Monday, the Financial Times reported that he is set to step down as president of the business school he founded, days after a Weibo video showed the Hupan University sign in Hangzhou being painted over.

Zhang's company has also faced headwinds.

TikTok was harangued by former U.S. President Donald Trump as a security risk to the data of American users of the hugely popular app.

Inside China, ByteDance is among dozens of tech firms warned to "self-rectify" issues, including over privacy and market dominance before the state chops them down.

Zhang found himself having to walk a fine line between his domestic and global roles.

Tech CEOs must "be sensitive at all times to the political climate in the country, where the senior political leadership is on a particular sector or issue, and many prefer to keep a low profile because of this," said Paul Triolo of Eurasia group.

But "being seen as too close to Beijing may be a liability for companies with international ambitions," he added.

Taking tech to task in China is also more than a simple authoritarian reflex, said Rui Ma, tech investor and host of the TechBuzz China podcast.

"I don't think this is 'putting them in their place,'" she added.

"This is an effort to update regulations so that they are up to global standards" in markets that have been loosely marshaled by the state yet command the attention of hundreds of millions of consumers.

While Facebook and Amazon brush away criticism of monopoly, tax avoidance and overextended influence in America's open market, China wants to curate a different model.

Pruning monopolies now should also allow small, innovative firms to sprout up, added Ma.

The conundrum for China's tech bosses is that ballooning growth, and the data and financial power it incubates, moves onto government territory.

Their scale brings "not yet entirely predictable economic, social and political consequences, which inevitably unnerves political elites," said Xin Sun.

"Many (tech CEOs) have chosen early retirement and more importantly diluting the ownership and control rights they hold over the companies to avoid being personally targeted by the regime."

For ByteDance's Zhang, who hands over the reins to college roommate and co-founder Liang Rubo, the message for the public was that a step back now means a strategic foothold in the future.

"Progress requires us to break through the inertia, and to keep exploring," he said.

Sponsored by Niwano Peace Prize

Taiwan's Shih recognized for lifetime of service, dedication

This year, the 38th Niwano Peace Prize will be awarded to the Venerable Shih Chao-hwei of Taiwan in recognition of her work in peace building through her safeguarding of all forms of life, promotion of gender ethics and gender equality, and her approach to open-minded dialogue with different religious leaders and social groups.

As a leading social advocate in Taiwan, Shih has successfully campaigned on a wide range of issues, including gender equality, animal rights and nuclear power, among others. She currently teaches religious studies at Hsuan Chuang University as a professor and is the founder of Buddhist Hong-shi College.

"I am humbled to be among the other pioneering figures who have bravely and diligently committed themselves toward the well-being and harmony of our planet. And I vow to steward and carry forth this legacy with all my devotion and effort," Shih wrote in her acceptance letter.

To avoid undue emphasis on any particular religion or region, every year the Niwano Peace Foundation solicits nominations from people of recognized intellectual and religious stature around the world. In the nomination process, some 600 people and organizations, representing 125 countries and many religions, are asked to propose candidates. Nominations are rigorously screened by the Niwano Peace Prize Committee, which currently consists of seven religious leaders from various parts of the world, all of whom are involved in movements for peace and inter-religious cooperation.

"During the last two decades, Venerable Shih Chao-hwei has led social movements to safeguard life in all forms. She promotes gender ethics, gender equality and open-minded dialogue with different religious leaders, social groups and academia," wrote committee member Nokuzola Mndende. "She also gives leadership and fearless engagement towards promoting peace. As a Buddhist, she stands up to promote sustainable peace."

The presentation ceremony will take place in Tokyo on June 2. In addition to an award certificate, Shih will receive a medal and ¥20 million.

Life of dedication

Shih was born in Yangon, Myanmar, in 1957, and moved to Taiwan in 1965. She was ordained in 1980. In 2004, she founded Hsuan Chuang's Research Centre for Applied Ethics. She is also the founder of the Life Conservationist Association, which lobbies for animal rights legislation. She received the 48th Chinese Literature and Arts Medal for her outstanding contributions to cultural debates, as well as the International Outstanding Women in Buddhism Medal in 2009, and The Person of the Year Prize for social movements in 2012. Together with the Dalai Lama, she has been appointed as the spiritual mentor and patron of the International Network of Engaged Buddhists, founded by the renowned Thai Buddhist reformer, Sulak Sivaraksa. Shih is the author of over 31 books and more than 77 research papers, including numerous manuscripts on nature conservation.

Her work on animal rights includes facilitating the legislation of the Wildlife Conservation Act and the Animal Protection Act, promoting the Buddhist practice to care for all sentient beings. She also ran a campaign to ban gambling on horses in Taiwan, which was successfully passed by parliament. This campaign is in line with her work on gambling, heading a coalition against the practice in Taiwan. She has campaigned against the building of casinos in economically disadvantaged Taiwanese regions, and her anti-gambling movement successfully led a referendum to stop casino construction on Penghu Island in 2009.

宗教協力による世界平和や平和構築に貢献した個人や団体を顕彰する第38回庭野平和賞は、仏教思想に基づいて動物保護や死刑廃止、人権保護、カジノ反対、ジェンダー平等などに取り組む台湾の社会派尼僧、昭慧(チャオフェイ)法師(63)に決まった。2月26日、(公財)庭野平和財団の庭野浩士理事長により発表された。贈呈式は6月2日に開催するが、実施方法についてはオンラインを含め決定次第、同財団HPなどで発表する。

動物保護からジェンダーまで 社会派の尼僧

昭慧法師は1957年、中国本土出身の両親のもとミャンマーのヤンゴンで生まれた。1965年に家族と共に台湾に移住。1978年に出家し、仏教の道を歩み始めた。玄奘大学や佛教弘誓学院で教鞭を執り、現在は玄奘大学宗教文化部長を務めている学究派でもある。

27歳の時、日本の大正大学で博士号を取得した印順導師との出会いが昭慧法師のその後を決定づけた。それから仏教精神に基づいた社会運動を推進してきた。「すべての生きとし生けるものを尊ぶ」という教えから、台湾において「野生動物保護法」と「動物保護法」の立法に取り組んだ。

また男性・女性という性別が、社会的にさまざまな差別を生んでいるジェンダー差別にも目を向け、2001年、尼僧は男僧に従わなければならないとする「八敬法」の廃止を求めて声をあげた。2012年には台湾で初めての仏教徒の同性結婚式を主宰して世界的に注目された。

今回の庭野平和賞決定にあたり、125カ国600人の学識者や宗教者に推薦を依頼。第1次、第2次書類選考等を経て5組に絞られ、庭野平和賞委員会委員による最終選考(オンライン)で決まった。

「奉納」形式で厳修

5分間不動で持ち続けた田中彰子さん

真言宗醍醐派総本山醍醐寺（京都市伏見区）の最重要行事である「五大力尊仁王会」（五大力さん）が2月23日に厳修された。新型コロナウイルス対策として僧侶や職員にPCR検査もしくは抗体・抗原検査を行って、かつ伽藍や仏具など寺院全体にナノゾーンコート加工を施して万全の体制を敷いた。
巨大な餅を持ち上げ、その力を五大明王に奉納することで無病息災を願う「持ち上げ奉納」。例年は競技形式で時間を競い横綱を決めるが、今年は競技とはせずあくまでも「奉納」に主眼を置くこととした。女性（5人）は90㌔、男性（14人）は150㌔の餅。金堂前特設ステージで全力で持ち上げた。
制限時間は最長5分。歴代の横綱の参加もあった。2019年の女性横綱である田中彰子さんは8分3秒の記録を持つ。今回もがっしりと台をつかみ、腰を安定させて5分間を微動だにせず支えた。「それまで！」と僧侶の声がかかると大いに拍手があがった。
ピクリとも動かせず「想像以上に重い！」と悔しそうな参加者も。とはいうものの、限りない五大明王の功徳は、あまねく人にもたらされることは間違いなし。
15日から21日までの「前行法要」で僧侶が祈りを込めた「御影」「懐中守」はあらゆる災厄から家と身を守ってくれる。昨年の御影を返し、新しいものを受け取った市内在住の女性は「去年、自分も家族もコロナに罹らなかったのはこちらのおかげです」と感謝していた。御影・懐中守は例年は当日限りの授与だが、今年は申し込めば3月24日まで郵送で授かることも可能。

日蓮が晩年を過ごした身延山久遠寺（山梨県身延町）

作論が主張され、不軽菩薩の而強毒之による折伏下種が礼拝行にすり替えられて勧奨されるようになった。オリンピックでも、「多様性の尊重と調和」が叫ばれているから、今後、他宗を排撃して法華信仰に二元化（国教化）しようとする日蓮の立正安国の理念と実践は、再検討・再解釈を余儀なくされるであろう。
封建時代の日蓮の仏教を、いかに民主主義の現代に甦生させるか。私としては、「いかなる宗教でも、悪しき原理主義に固執する教団は怖い」とだけ言っておきたい。

バブル経済崩壊後、30年を過ぎようとしているのに、未だ日本経済は回復基調を示せないままでいる◆この間、さまざまな景気刺激策が打ち出されたが、デフレ脱却には至らなかった。そしてコロナ禍である。国民の我慢と疲弊は限界に達している。だからこそ、コロナ後に向けたビジョンが示されるかと思いきや、やることなすことが後手後手だ◆この期に及んでも新自由主義を声高に主張する学者が後を絶たない。彼らは富の再分配やセーフティネットの構築には消極的だ。日本経済をリードした半導体は韓国、中国に追い抜かれて久しい。原子力発電所の輸出も反原発運動の高まりなどでストップした。コロナワクチンの開発は、米英ロ中印から2周ほど遅れている。GAFAのような情報産業も育っていない◆では、どうしたらいいのか。景気浮揚策の決め手として、最低賃金のアップが考えられる。米国は1600円にしようとしているし、韓国は1500円。日本は先進国最低の900円。その財源は500兆円といわれる企業の内部留保の取り崩しである◆所得が1・6倍になり購買力が一気に高まること間違いない。コロナ禍の今だからこそ、やるべきである。

38th Niwano Peace Prize Awarded to Taiwan's Venerable Shih Chao-hwei

TOKYO, Feb. 26, 2021 /Kyodo JBN-AsiaNet/ --

The Niwano Peace Foundation will award the 38th Niwano Peace Prize to the Venerable Shih Chao-hwei of Taiwan in recognition of her peace-building work through the safeguarding of all forms of life, promotion of gender equality, and open-minded dialogue with different religious leaders and social groups.

An award presentation ceremony will take place in Tokyo on June 2. In addition to an award certificate, Ven. Shih will receive a medal and a cash prize of 20 million yen.

Born in 1957 in Yangon, Myanmar, Ven. Shih moved to Taiwan in 1965 and was ordained in 1980. She teaches religious studies at Hsuan Chuang University as a professor. She is the founder of the Life Conservationist Association, which lobbies for animal rights. She was awarded the International Outstanding Women in Buddhism Medal in 2009, and the Person of the Year Prize for social movements in 2012.

In selecting Ven. Shih as a recipient for 2021, the Niwano Peace Prize Committee said her view of Buddhist faith "as more of a profound philosophy than simply a religion...is the foundation of her activism." Calling her an internationally renowned "engaged Buddhist," one Committee member noted she is "a gender rights activist and animal rights advocate" who also is "vocal about various social and political issues" in Taiwan.

Niwano Peace Prize:
The Niwano Peace Foundation established the Niwano Peace Prize to honor and encourage individuals and organizations that have contributed significantly to inter-religious cooperation, thereby furthering the cause of world peace, and to make their achievements known as widely as possible. The Foundation hopes in this way to enhance inter-religious understanding and cooperation and to encourage the emergence of still more persons devoted to working for world peace. The prize is named in honor of the founder and first president of the lay Buddhist organization Rissho Kosei-kai, Nikkyo Niwano.

Niwano Peace Foundation:
The Niwano Peace Foundation was chartered in 1978 to contribute to the realization of world peace and the enhancement of a culture of peace. The foundation promotes research and other activities based on the spirit of religious principles and serves the cause of peace in such fields as education, science, religion and philosophy.

釋昭慧 獲日本庭野和平獎

【記者陳宛茜／台北報導】被譽為「宗教界諾貝爾獎」的日本庭野和平獎，昨舉行線上頒獎。本屆得主為佛教弘誓學院創辦人釋昭慧，是繼二〇〇七年證嚴法師後，第二位得獎的台灣人。和平獎委員會說，昭慧法師在台灣參與性別平等、同婚、動物保護與反核等社會運動，並與各宗教領袖和社會團體拋開成見進行對談；在她眼中，佛教不只是信仰，而是深遠的實踐哲學，透過改革運動保護一切眾生，進而促進世界和平。

庭野和平獎得主可獲兩千萬日元獎金。全球迄今共有卅八位得獎人，只有三位華人，前兩位為在對岸創「人間佛教」的趙樸初、證嚴法師。

庭野和平獎委員長莎拉（Sarah Joseph））說，昭慧法師面對困難的勇氣及不畏輿論為爭議性議題發聲的姿態，值得讚賞。對昭慧法師來說，從事社運所面對的動盪與情境變化是一種佛教修行，幫助自我從痛苦從解脫。

昭慧法師說，宗教可完成的任務，遠比個人的解脫和救贖更為遠大，那就是推動世界和平。但倘若沒有超越宗派、階級、性別、種族、國家、物種的視野與胸懷，在神聖語言的催眠下，人們可能理性繳械、理智鈍化、情感狂熱而畸形發展，「這時宗教也可以成為世界和平的麻煩製造者。」

昭慧法師說，佛教內部有出世與入世路線之爭，關懷社會、慈悲濟世的活動，在佛教界常被認為不務正業，她形容「入世佛教的勇士」總是無所畏懼，她把獲獎榮耀歸於這些人間佛教與入世佛教的好朋友們。她昨也向恩師印順法師獻上敬意與謝意。

被譽為「宗教界諾貝爾獎」的日本庭野和平獎舉行線上頒獎典禮，佛教弘誓學院創辦人釋昭慧是本屆得主。

賀喜 昭慧法師
榮獲「2021日本庭野平和賞」

佛教弘誓學院創辦人、玄奘大學宗教文化系教授釋昭慧法師，於2021年二月廿六日獲得日本庭野和平基金會（Niwano Peace Foundation）頒發之「庭野平和賞」（Niwano Peace Prize），此獎被視爲「宗教界諾貝爾和平獎」，昭慧法師獲獎主因爲其在佛法理念下所推動的社會運動及成就。

庭野和平基金會是日本第二大佛教居士團體「立正佼成會」，於1978年所創設，自1983年起每年選出一人或一個團體，表揚其對促進宗教交流及推動世界和平的重大貢獻，上一位獲頒此獎的台灣人是證嚴法師，因創立及監督慈濟基金會，並進行各項國內外人道救援行動而於2007年獲獎，時隔十四年，與證嚴法師同爲佛教高僧印順導師弟子門生的昭慧法師再次獲獎，兩人雖處事風格與工作內容大相逕庭，卻是情同手足，這也意味著印順導師畢生提倡「人間佛教」，主張積極入世的利他主義，已受到了世人的肯定與國際的關注。

▲ 昭慧法師與性廣法師共同創辦佛教弘誓學院，弘揚人間佛教精神

昭慧法師表示：「如果沒有印順導師的思想基礎、沒有台灣民主運動前輩的血淚，我是找不到這樣的出路的」，爲了實現佛法「尊重世界上所有生命」的理念，法師長期致力於保護動物權益、反賭博合法化、反賭馬、佛門性別平等、廢止死刑、保障人權等社會改革運動，特別是在性別正義與婚姻平權運動的努力，引起國內外關注，法師認爲所謂宗教修行不應

▲國際入世佛教協會(INEB)第18屆雙年會2017年於弘誓學院盛大登場，來自泰國、韓國、日本、印度、斯里蘭卡、奧地利、越南、英國、美國等23國，約170位嘉賓與會

該是出世的，可以與社會運動相輔相成，進而實踐「大慈，與一切眾生樂，大悲，拔一切眾生苦」的慈悲佛法。

昭慧法師身爲佛教徒，也與各宗教保持珍貴友誼，共同促進多項跨宗教社會運動，透過合作撰寫學術論文、發表文章及專書，在宗教教學上有著卓越奉獻，曾多次榮獲教育報銀質獎章，因長期推動社會運動，亦在2007年獲聘國際入世佛教協會（International Network of Engaged Buddhists）四位精神導師之一，其他三位爲：西藏達賴喇嘛、越南一行禪師、泰國佛使尊者，昭慧法師是最年輕且唯一的比丘尼。

日本庭野平和基金會將於今年五月頒發獎盃和日幣二千萬元獎金，昭慧法師不改一貫扶弱理念：「我覺得這次疫情，台灣是最幸運，我不想用在國內，但像印度這麼悲慘，幫助第三世界國家也是杯水車薪。我跟INEB秘書長說，這筆獎金要交給他們運用，幫助那些受疫情影響、也分不到國家資源的災民。」

「這是台灣社會運動的共同榮耀，感念同甘共苦的伙伴及兩岸推動人間佛教的佛門師友，至今還是有很多人認爲我們這樣不像修行，但我們這群人都堅定努力，用論述、行動繼續走下去」，數十年以行動投入利生理念的昭慧法師如是說。

1 December 2020

Dear Venerable Pomnyun Sunim,

We, at the International Network of Engaged Buddhists – INEB, send our heartfelt congratulations to you on receiving the 2020 Niwano Peace Prize during the official ceremony on 26 October 2020. Your vision of a "Pure Mind, Good Friends, and Clean Earth," that a peaceful world, a healthy environment and addressing structural inequalities only can be attained through mutual coexistence resonates deeply with us.

On behalf of the International Network of Engaged Buddhists, we are very humbled and grateful to you for sharing the Niwano Peace Prize's monetary award of 20,000,000 Japanese yen (approximately 200,000 US dollars) to further INEB's work in the South and Southeast Asia region. Your generous support is helping three specific initiatives:

1. 50,000 USD for INEB's Mindful Action: COVID-19 Emergency Relief Fund which has provided funds to 17 organizations in 5 countries – Bangladesh, Cambodia, India, Myanmar, and Nepal. The organizations' efforts have reached more than 29,000 persons in great need with food, hygiene supplies, accurate information about COVID-19, and more. We learned that your funding support came from the public in Korea through Join Together Society (JTS), which is an international relief organization affiliated with Jungto Society.

2. 150,000 USD for emergency medical supplies to Myanmar where the COVID-19 pandemic is rapidly increasing. INEB's partner, the Kalyana Mitta Development Foundation – KMF based in Yangon, is helping to coordinate the shipment of protective items that will be distributed to 2 hospitals in Myanmar which are primary medical treatment centers responding to COVID-19. The medical supplies will be used by health professionals caring for persons with COVID-19. The items being shipped include: shoe covers, face masks, protective face shields (glasses), latex powder-free gloves, PPE (disposable protective coverall). In addition, Covid-19 Test Kits will be supported. Providing these items goes a long to both protecting the health care professionals working on the front lines, as well as the persons for whom they are caring.

3. 50,000 USD for Buddhist women's empowerment in Southeast Asia to begin in January 2021. We are developing a concept paper which we will consult with you about how to proceed with this initiative.

We are also most appreciative to the Jungto Society for hosting INEB's next biennial conference in October 23 – 30, 2021. This conference will be a most joyous occasion to celebrate together after being separated during the pandemic. We look forward to being in South Korea where we will experience the culture and have an opportunity to exchange ideas and move forward together as a network.

Again, we send our sincere congratulations to you on receiving the 2020 Niwano Peace Prize and most sincerely thank you for your generosity. When the pandemic situation eases and international travel opens again, we both want to meet with you at a place of your choosing.

With metta,
